Speaking Job Assigned to Torrance Man

Robert R. Wallace of 917 Cranbrook Ave., will be presenting a 20-minute talk called "The Medical Revolution" to interested civic and professional groups as a hospital research associate of CIBA Pharmaceutical Products Inc.

He is part of CIBA's nationwide speakers' bureau, one of 60 men who just completed an intensive course in speech training. Mr. Wallace has been with CIBA since 1953. He is a graduate of UCLA.

Besides discussing the benefits of drugs and the savings in total medical costs, "The Medical Revolution" predicts that cures for cancer and heart disease will be "only a fraction reached by the year 2000.

CIBA speakers will be available in most parts of the country for speaking engagements to interested community groups.

Red Nichols Swings Back Into Marineland Spotlight

Red Nichols, one of the most enduring musical institutions in American jazz, came swinging back to Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes this week for his fourth engagement, tooting his high-sounding cornet and leading his "Five Pennies" in the Porpoise Room.

Their jazz treatment of the old Dixieland favorites and Nichols' solos drew salvos of applause.

The musical idol of the 20's, signed by owner George M. Foster, will entertain in Marineland Restaurant nightly except Mondays until mid-November.

"There's a large, eager and devoted audience for his kind of music," stated Foster, who has seen showcasing many living musical legends in the Porpoise Room. They have included Wild Bill Davidson, Clyde McCoy, The Ink Spots and Ray Bauduc. "Red Nichols offers listenable jazz. He avoids the far-off stuff, and my patrons literally stand up and applaud after every set."

THE JAZZ AS presented by Nichols in Marineland Restaurant is a true art form, not a frenzied and prodigious profusion of notes. Clutching his golden cornet, he plays them with a round, driving, controlled sonority. The virtuoso of the horn segues neatly from brassy, muted thunder into a perfect stream of jazz sounds, exposing his hot-noted band to infinite improvisation or rhythmic simplicity.

"The Five Pennies," led by Nichols, will be in the bandstand for nine more weeks, and reservations in the Porpoise Room are suggested by Foster.

Army Maj. Wilfred E. Irish, Jr., 38, whose parents live at 20011 Mansel Ave., is attending the 38-week regular course at The Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

The course is designed to prepare selected officers for duty as commanders and general staff officers at division, corps and field army levels.

Major Irish, a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, was graduated from Niagara University in Niagara Falls, N.Y., in 1949 and from Stetson University in De Land, Fla., in 1961.

Noted Organ Star to Open Local Show

Organist-pianist Ann Leaf, featured the past three years in the Rainbow Room of New York's famed Rockefeller Center, opens Sept. 26 at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

The talented keyboard star was signed by owner Bob Reuben to entertain nightly except Mondays in the cocktail lounge. She will replace organist Buddy Nolan, who is winding up his sixth year at The Pen & Quill.

Miss Leaf, recording artist for Westminster Records, is best-known for her organ programs on NBC and CBS radio networks. She also appeared on many top radio shows, including "The Contented Hour," starring the late Buddy Clark. Many outstanding solo appearances are credited to the brilliant organist. They include theater performances in Boston, New York, Los Angeles; and at the Cleveland Exposition and the National Press Club in Washington, D.C.
